Presents

Creating an Accessible Environment for Students, Staff and Faculty with Disabilities

A Presentation and Conversation with

Jan Serrantino-Cox, Ed.D

Disability Services Center, Director

Tuesday, March 1, 2016

Noon-1:00 p.m.

Cross-Cultural Center (Ring Room)

Dr. Jan Serrantino is the Director of the Disability Services Center at the University of California, Irvine. She has worked in the field of disability services since 1989 as a K-12 teacher and administrator, university faculty member, and student advocacy consultant. She serves on the UCI Mental Health Task force and the University of California Electronic Accessibility Leadership Team. Jan presents regularly at professional conferences on disability-related topics such as serving students with Autism Spectrum Disorders, Academic Accommodations, and Challenges faced by Students in Higher Education. Jan is co-author of two chapters in The Guide to Assisting Students with Disabilities: Equal Access in Health Science and Professional Education (Springer Publishing).

The event is part of the Office of Equal Opportunity and Diversity's Campus Conversations Series which aims to provide the campus community with opportunities to engage in dialogues about contemporary topics related to equal opportunity and diversity.

Light lunch will be served. Register through <https://eee.uci.edu/signupsheet/campusconversation>
